DEDICATION

The yearbook is usually dedicated to two teachers who helped the Senior class through their treacherous years at Uni. However, this year, WE, THE CLASS OF 1978, DEDICATE THE YEARBOOK TO A FRIEND OF OURS, KIRSTEN UGGERBY, who helped many of us through just by being there. As you all know, Kirsten died November 27, 1977. She was seventeen years old. Seventeen is an especially tough time for anyone—you're just about over all the problems of growing up, and your whole life is opening up. Kirsten unfortunately was not able to do all the things she had planned for her life, but she did accomplish one very important thing that few people ever manage: she made a lot of people happy. Thank you, Kirsten. We'll miss you.

The Guardian Spirit of Uni Talks:

At 7:00, I stand proudly among the other buildings, my halls silent and undisturbed. Then crowds, strangely attracted to me, despite my age, commence to invade my once-tranquil structure to perform their daily rituals. At 8:00, the masses attend their scheduled seminars.

This is my autobiography. I am . . . UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL. At 8:30, Seniors arrive even though they have a first hour class. I try to scold them, but they don't listen, I guess it's true, the youth of today has lost their respect for the youth of yesterday. For example, they write on my walls, and just last year I was forced to undergo an expensive operation—a phone transplant.

During first and second periods, students learn vital information necessary for their future life, such as, how to recognize a member of the opposite sex, or the velocity of a 5 lb. metallic sphere ejected from a train traveling from New York to New Orleans at a uniform speed of 100 mph, 30 seconds after daybreak at an angle of 43.205 degrees on a day with a 39 mile gust north to northeast.

During the morning free period, students are finishing homework due last period, studying for a test next period, playing four-square, or skipping their apathy club meeting. One disadvantage my students have this year is the absence of my delicate jukebox which used to blast throughout my hallways such all-time favorites as "Disco Duck", Theme from SWAT, "Dead Skunk in the Middle of the road", and "That's the way I want to shake your boogie man".

It seems to me that five minutes is not nearly enough time for my kids to run to the other side of me!

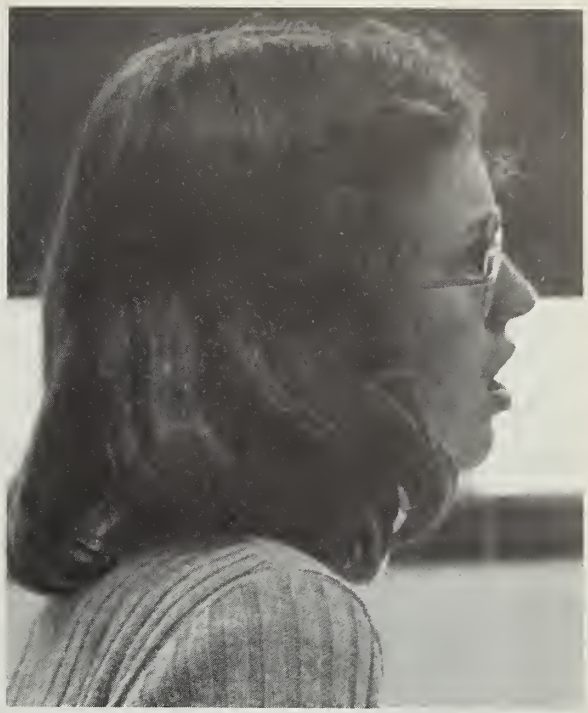
At lunchtime, there are various meetings, messy halls and lounge, and noisy subs tearing up and down my hallways—giving me indigestion.

"Be courteous, kind, and forgiving.
Be gentle and peaceful each day . . .

"Be warm and human and grateful.
And have a good thing to say . . .

"Be thoughtful and trustful and childlike.
Be witty and happy and wise . . .

"Be honest and love all your neighbors.
Be obsequious, purple, and clairvoyant . . .



"Criticize things you don't know about.
Be oblong and have your knees removed . . .

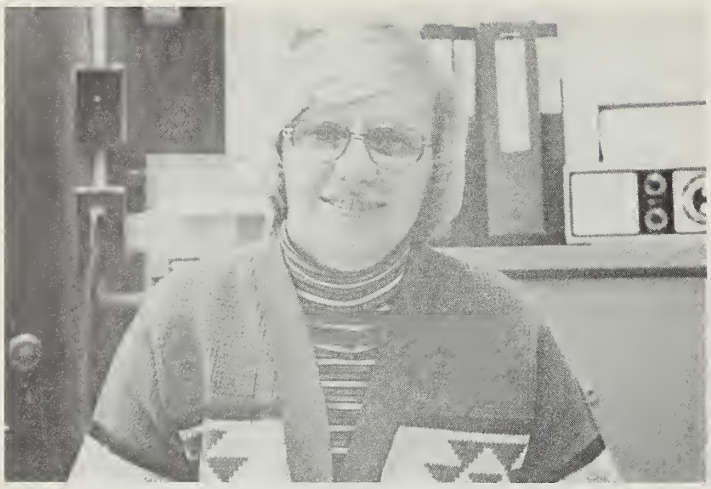
Due to the brilliant planning of the program coordinators, PE is directly after lunch, along with 282's, upset stomachs, headaches, and flaring tempers. Many of my enterprising students avoid this by not going to PE at all. I, of course, disapprove of this, although I do sympathize with them.

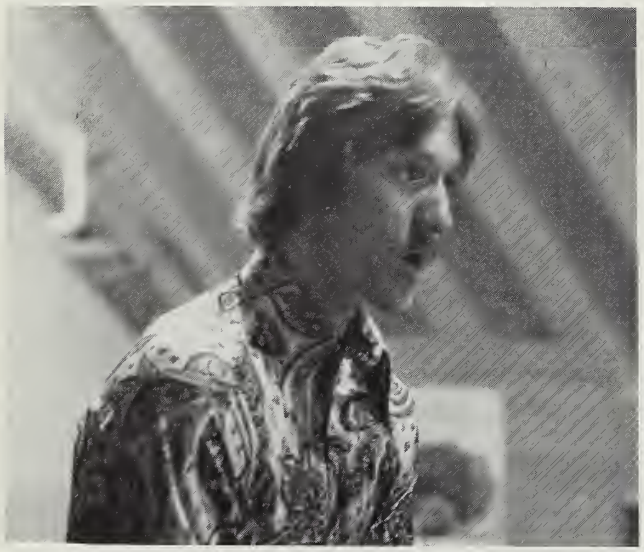
Back within my halls at this time, however, are athletes who have earned their excused absences from PE and are taking advantage of this.

Eighth hour arrives, and I am blessed by angelic sounds in the attic, among other things, like screeches and squeals from freshman girls in the lounge. But soon the day is over and after the janitors make their rounds, my halls are once again peaceful and clean.

"Put a live chicken in your underwear.

Get all excited and go to a yawning festival." Steve Martin

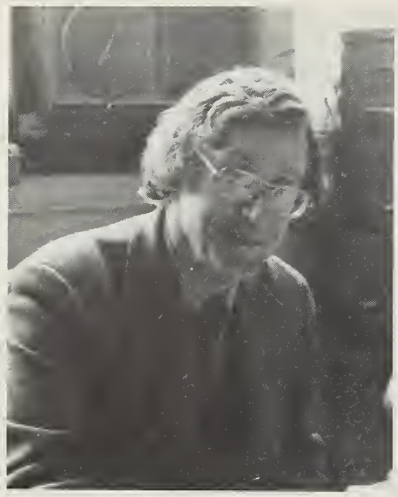




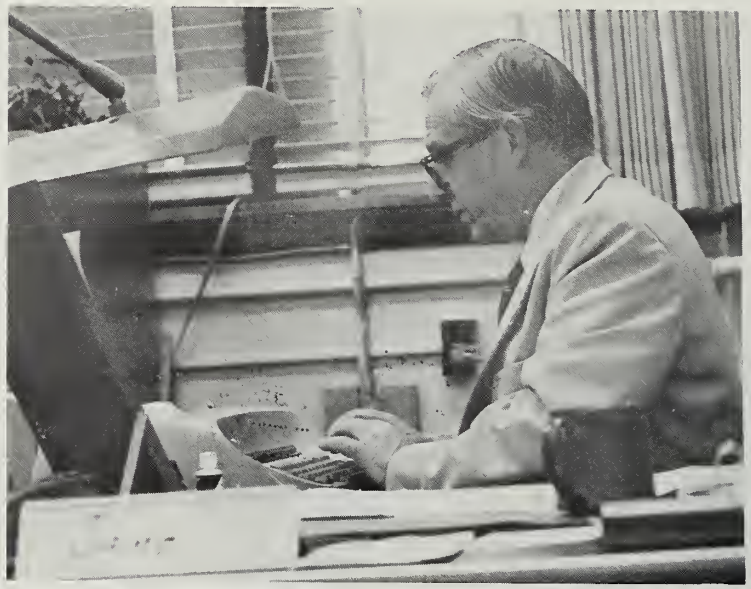
"I'm sorry, the number you have reached is not in working order at this time . . ."

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

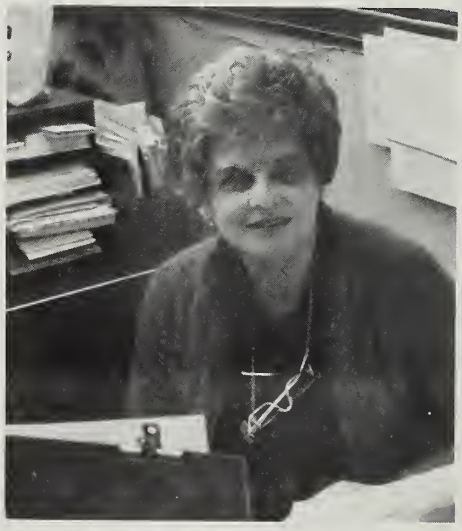


Alan Purves (above) directed the Curriculum Laboratory abd taught 11th grade English. Bill Renner (below) was our assistant principal and punished people.



Mr. Warren Royer was our principal this year, the cutie.

SECRETARIES



Dr. Purves' secretary, Mrs. Bandy.

Mrs. Mank, the Office Manager.

Mrs. Marsha Branson used to be a receptionist, but she left. Sob.

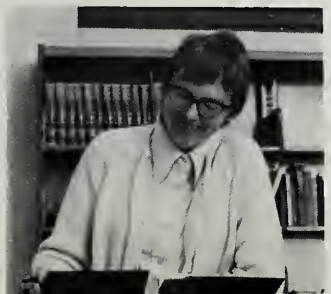
Jackie Becker worked afternoons in the library.

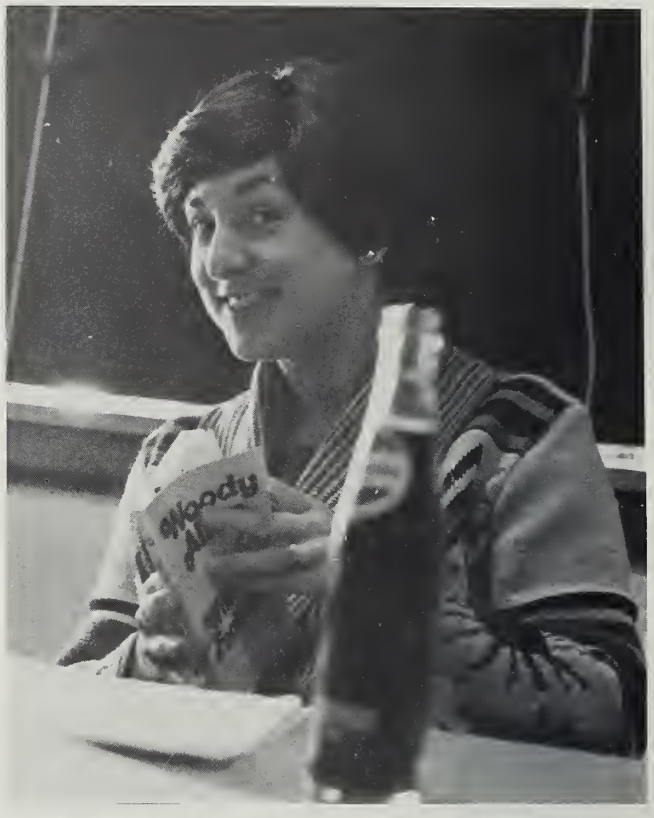


Joan Van Nord, 007 secret agent at Uni High disguised as head librarian.

The library people spent their time renting out books and magazines, generally on a three week basis.

ENGLISH

Mrs. Charlene Tibbetts, head of the English department, taught English (or tried to, at least) to the seventh graders every day in the North Attic. Not pictured, Dr. Alan Purves, who taught Junior English.



Mrs. Mary Hoag taught English to the freshmen and Seniors. She also served as Student Council sponsor (poor woman).

"It is a tale told by an idiot,
Full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing."
—Macbeth

Ms. Hostetter taught English to the sophomores. She also sponsored Gargoyle, which is very time consuming.

"Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater,
Had a wife and couldn't keep her.
Had another, didn't love her,
Up the chimney he did shove her."
—Ancient Chinese Proverb

Tom Tomko taught subfreshman Social Studies.

Dr. Bob Ennis also Taught subfreshman Social Studies.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council

Our illustrious Student Council was comprised of many illustrious people: from right to left in the very back row; David Glockner, Linda Pace, Robert Sah, David Temperly, J. Mark Williams, Jane Gladney, Heidi Rockwood; second to the last row Michael Dorning, Michael Marder, third to the last row; Mary Choldin, John Gleichman, Chuck Sentman, Diedre Shupp and Mary Hoag; and in the fourth to the last row Jason Greenberg and Briana Yates.

Exec

And in the Executive Committee we have Diedre Shupp, Mrs. Mary Hoag, J. Mark, David Glockner, Robert Sah, and Jason Greenberg.

Finance

And in the Business World, Heidi Rockwood, Mrs. Mary Hoag, David Glockner, Chuck Sentman, and Robert Sah.

SFAC this year consisted of: Mark Williams, Bill Foster, Warren Royer, Nancy Bailey, Carol Bond, and Jason Greenberg. Elections committee members (below) were Raffi Babakhanian, Jason Greenberg.

The evils of Capitalism.

Chorus, directed by Norman TeSlaa, consisted of: Nancy Brotherson, Betsy Brotherson, Marie Williams, Laurel Appel, Deidre Shupp, Cindy Sherbert, Amy Molnar, Mary Williams, Margaret Williams, Julia Schult, Lucy Temperly, Nels Gullerud, David Norman, Mike Stecyk, Mike Marder, J. Mark Williams, JB or BJ, DanB, Sara Hymowitz, and Peter Krause. If you are in Chorus and your name was not mentioned here, there is room at the bottom of the page for you to write it in.

Madrigals were: Nancy, Marie, Jason, Cindy, Mike M, Lucy, Deidre, Mary W, Nels, and JB.

Hi, Mom!

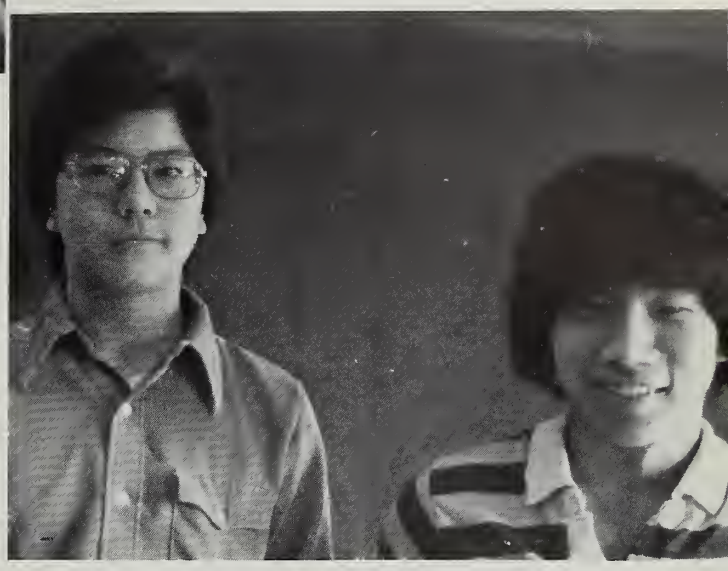
If you won't fight, leave!

This is a small sample of AV committee. They are: Mary, Mary, and Mike.

Milk Committee sold milk at Chow-time. That is why we call them MILK Committee. Pictured (front row): Angela Friedman, Adrienne Osborn, Diedre Shupp, Susie Green, Kate (or Mary) Choldin, Laurel Appel, David Norman, and Mary Ann Schran. (Jason just stuck his nose in to cause trouble).

Robert Sah and David Glockner worked on Book Bar. They sold books. That's why we called it Book Bar.

Robert Sah and Jimmy Mayeda worked on the handbook, and things for Orientation. Robert just likes having his picture in the Yearbook.



Milk is a natural, and it's ummm,mmm, good!

This is our chess team. (From left to right) front row: Philip Parker, Stephen Schran, Yukio Nishida, Jim Lafaye, John Gleichman, and John Atkin. (Back row) Thomas Krause, Robert Sah (again), Mark Zvilius, Toshi Nishida, and David Sprenkle, Sponsor. If you think you see Richard in there, get your eyes checked.

Agora Week committee did a lot of work and scheduled everything for Agora Week and had a whole lot of fun, I guess. (L to R) Robert Sah, Willy Purves, Mark Zvilius, and Susan Green. Not pictured: David Glockner.

Gargoyle, THE school newspaper, was really cool. Gargoyle staff and editors this year were: (L to R) Theo Merritt, Brian Brinkerhoff, Eric Yang, Stevie Rader, Jim Mayeda, 1st semester editor; Jane Gladney, 2nd semester editor; Miss Hostetter, sponsor; Paul Parker, Betsy Brotherson, Robert Sah, and Thomas Krause who only has been to one meeting.

X-Country

Uni started the 1977 season with a new course. The course record is held by a Georgetown runner at 17:44. The Uni course record is held by Brian Brinkerhoff at 18:12, though he set an unofficial course record in the student-faculty meet at 18:04.

Look, ma! Three hands!

Congratulations!

KICKAPOO CONFERENCE

Dawson Lake was the site of the Kickapoo Conference meet, as Uni rolled over its conference rivals to coast to an easy victory. Uni placed 3 in the top 5, 5 in the top 8, and all 7 runners in the top 11. Uni ran away with 3 medals and 4 ribbons, as Uni compiled an incredible 25 points, compared to Tri-Valley's 44, Wapella's 70, and Saybrook-Arrowsmith's 110 points. Times: D. Brunner 16:55, B. Brinkerhoff 17:12, M. Williams 17:41, D. Norman 18:04, J. Mayeda 18:16, J. Pirke 18:24, P. Stevenson 18:29.

Medal winners: Dan Bruner (2nd place), Brian Brinkerhoff (3rd place), and Mark Williams (5th place).

Annual (Semi) Surprise Xmas Party

Madrigals walked the halls, singing their fa la la's, and merrily led the rest of the school into the gym.

The party was only semi-surprise this year because the bulk of the party was a movie that everyone knew about. The movie was shown in order to receive donations for Mr. Thomas, (biology teacher), whose little girl died this fall. The teachers did not put on skits as they usually do, but the students did give a few awards to teachers.

There was also a Christmas Party (band: GEYSER) in the Illini Union; we regret to say that we took no pictures of it. We assume everyone had a good time.

Richard gives Georgy a Communist Revolution.

Chorus sang after the Madrigals, and both were directed by Mr. TeSlaa.

Some of our finer students and faculty earned certificates for CPR.

By far the most popular courses offered were the cooking courses, and Mrs. Bond instructed a lucky few on the delicacies of French cuisine . . . The Social Studies department played student teams at basketball during this week of festivities.

CLASS HISTORY

FORM I

We arrive at Uni: a mix-matched group of creative "intellectuals" and are expected to discover the secrets of the universe the natural way, through a program called Form I.
We are told that the main activity as a Formie is to do projects.
We all attempt projects, then give up.
Some Formies break every typewriter they can lay their hands on.
We all get on people's nerves.
Cards, pinball, and 4-square are new types of projects.
Lippold leaves and comes back.
Everyone wonders who Gad Meir is.
We lost several rats, built Mouse Mansion, Hampster Town, etc.
Triplett and Dennis don't know any more than we do.
Claire and Marie haunt the vents and appall the librarians.
Lippold's last projectis raking leaves into a box and calling it a leaf collection.
We don't have a lot to say about Form I year—most of us have tried our best to forget it.

FRESHMEN

This year we start going to classes.
Alison, Gerhard, and Deidre join us.
Doug leaves.
We win our last basketball game.
Claire becomes C.M. Swahili.
Mr. Jolly teaches us about pica-fumi, then returns to Mississippi.
Alison counts paramecia.
Lippold becomes a spazz.
Raisin kicking becomes a favorite pastime.
Nancy asks what a narc is.
Several students destroy desks made by the subs.
Mark Zvilius and Frau Wachs get together.
Half of us are Form II and half of us are normal.
Robert falls madly in love with Miss McCoy.
We are subject to Tadleman (we love you, coach) and Avallone (awboloney).
The legend of Super Babs appears on every blackboard in the school.
Jimmy falls in love with his student teacher, Nancy.

SOPHOMORES

We are again divided into two groups Sophomore year, the smart class and the dumb class. Our teachers try to tell us that the class was divided by picking names out of a hat but then the smart class found out that they really were smarter ("Does the wind blow?")
Anne leaves.
BO spaces out.
Deidre falls in love with Andy A. and they are the only couple who obediently follow P.D.A. rules.
Marie gets a haircut.
Mrs. Gordon kicks Lindsay out of class every day.
Thomas gives his first Raven speech.
Social Studies dep't motto—Lay your base and hang it up.
Lindsay never has any books to call his own.
We have Miss Leppert for Social Studies (enough said).
Linda writes "jokes" on the blackboard.
Lindsay and Richard dress up as Spock.
Stephen finally says something.
Laurel and Deidre start a floating date.

JUNIORS

After Sophomore year, we look forward to studying long hours for ACTs and SATs. That is, some of us do.
We have a new vice principal, Al Davidian, alias "Jaws", who is definetly on our side.
Deidre gets her brace off.
Laurel and Tom leave for ½ year, Dave and Jill leave after ½ year.
Mike and Dave get gagged in U.S. History, but to no avail.
We see a new Mrs. Hoag (I.E. we see a little less of her).
At this year's Theatre Festival we all give each other backrubs.
Linda continues to write "jokes" on the blackboard.
Marie's latent cheerleading talent comes out.
Claire cuts Richie's hair in the first floor hall; Jaws gets a clip for 25¢.
Thomas tries his Raven speech again.
Gerhard amuses us to tears with Newfie jokes.
Everyone turns into rats, thanks to Art.
Mr. Royer gets mad about students smoking pot in the school, until he finds that the faculty has been doing the same thing.
The Fire Marshall visits every other day.
Lippold exposes himself at the Westfield game.
Richie and Lindsay eat Cap'n Crunch in the lounge and send the fire trucks to Jaws.
A few of us suffer from Jockitch, and C-R-U-E-X is no help.
All the male teachers have babies except George.
During Agora Week, the Lake Geneva group steals a toilet and brings it back to an honored space in the lounge.
Also during Agora Week, several students get literally blown away on the Chicago Trip.
Tsuma (lightningbolt) bounces students through Physics. (Ya?)
Linda joins Lippold as a SPAZZZ.
Marie is plagued by Senior guys.
David is student council president.
BO stays spaced out.
Mr. Rogers introduces us to value analysis models. Soon afterwards, God drops a tree on his house.

SENIORS

Finally!
Jason is student council president, and we have no more cares or worries.
Tom returns as Lindsay leaves.
Lindsay becomes fink-rat.
Dov comes to English once a year.
Amanda is a potty mouth.
Everyone does note cards the day before they're due.
David, after visiting the Senate, falls in love with Ronald Reagan, and turns completely conservative.
At this year's Theatre Festival, Alison, Linda, Claire, and Amanda share a room with everyone.
On our way to a chess and basketball world record.
Linda writes Herbie poems on the blackboard.
Peter becomes a Plato terminal, falls in love with an onion, then eats it.
Jimmy captains the basketball team.
Jimmy hustles.
Alison limps around.
Paul and Art have a New Year's party.
Nancy is a hyperturkey.
Deidre gets a haircut.
There is a fire in the girl's lounge, and no one knows who started it.
Mark is a dummy, then Nancy is a dummy.
Paul goes down the building.
Robert joins the basketball team, and starts, too!
The girls get thrown out of the girl's lounge, out of DCL, and finally out of CERL.
A few unfortunates get Disman for a PE teacher, and Claire flunks because of her attitude.
Why does Mark stay out of the Lounge?
Mary & Jane get constantly busted while Alison stands by and laughs.
Art leaves us.
So, nearing the end of Senior year, most of us feel both good and bad about leaving Uni and going off to college, or not going off to college. What Uni has done for us, we don't really know. But any way, Good-by, Uni, and good luck.

These assorted students were either in Poland, in Math class, or incapacitated at the time that the regular pictures were taken, so, we were forced to let them get retakes and were forced to put them in the back of the yearbook on a page of their own. Thank you, Warren Dastrup.
